Mission

The CCCSA aims to define Colorado as a premier Nordic Destination providing world-class skiing and snowshoeing to a diverse group of visitors. CCCSA strives to enhance the visitor and local experience through engaging educational content while boosting economic activity in rural mountain communities.

About

The CCCSA is a member-based 501c6 nonprofit organization founded in September 22, 1983. It is comprised of 17 Nordic resorts and 2 Nordic retailers. The CCCSA raises marketing funds via membership dues, grants, and the sale of their Nordic Season Punch Pass. All funds are used to support the CCCSA's mission by maintaining its website, generating engaging content, and promoting Colorado Nordic through various marketing channels. The CCCSA strives to promote sustainable, low-impact recreation and tourism.
